Italian Singer/Songwriter Luca Bash Releases New Album 'Keys of Mine'

posted by Jessica Golich December 5, 2017

Italian Singer/Songwriter, Luca Bash, lyrically seeks clarity throughout his latest album release, 'Keys of Mine'. Kicking off with the first track, "Backstage", melodic guitar solos add an element of mystery within a diverse landscape of instrumental: from Jazz, Rock, and Blues. "Beyond the Screen" is the second track in which Luca lyrically speaks on the importance of finding the light within and how mass society is leading their lives behind a screen which has put a damper on a budding connection. The third track, "Your Tomorrow", slows it down into a lyrical ode influencing another to seek what sets fire and simultaneously explore a level of self-love that has yet to be reached. "Paradise Caf  " is the fourth track which is an instrumental like of Dave Matthews Band with an opening guitar ambiance that is abounding with celestial energy and frenetic riffs that coruscate through the minds of intrigued listeners.

The fifth track, "Forever Like Asleep" begins with a Bluesy blast of soul that leads into a lyrical tale of leading life as a wheel and allowing external influences hinder personal growth. "The Sun's Everlasting Smile" is the sixth track which is an entrancing Jazz instrumental that blends into softened vocals from Luca that reflects the impassioned songwriter who emits an aura of love. The seventh track, "Women's Way (Nu Shu)", is an album highlight that mimics the likes of George Harrison's "Rainsong" with a lyrical exploration of diversity and choosing to gain understanding through stepping into the shoes of an individual.
